“Sometimes you’re the 99, sometimes you’re the 1”

I have always admired those people who seem to go through life confidently knowing who they are, where they are and where they are going. Like the kid in 7th grade biology class who said, “I’m going to go to medical school and become a doctor. Then they went and did exactly that. I suppose that I admire that because I’m the guy who changed my major between my junior and senior year of college (by the way, I don’t recommend that). Have you ever had that moment as an adult when you look in the mirror and ask yourself, “Who am I really? What am I doing with my life? Where am I heading?” There is a word that describes that feeling, LOST.

When Jesus tells the parable of the lost sheep in Luke 15 I believe the application can be made not just being spiritually lost, but also being emotionally and physically lost. Yes, if I do not know the Lord or have rejected Him in my life, He will seek me to bring me under His care. But also if I find myself in life with no sense of direction as to where I am or where I am heading, God will seek me out. He will not leave me just blowing in the wind.

For this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I myself will search for my sheep and look after them.

Ezekiel 34:11

God knows your name. You were created for a purpose. You are not an accident. You are not disposable. The loving protection and guidance of God is there for you. He is waiting for you to take just one step towards Him. Then He will come running to you.

Phillip
